

STUDIO 495

SWISS INSTITUTE/CONTEMPORARY ART
BROADWAY 495 / 3rd Floor
10012 NEW YORK, NY
TUE-SAT 11 AM TO 6 PM

CABARET VOLTAIRE BOUTIQUE

DEC 3 – DEC 24 2008

Curated by Andrea Rocca

FEATURED PRODUCTS

MOTHERS OF INVENTION

BY MARGOT ZANNI

Zanni shines light on the women supporting the revolutionary icons of Che Guevera, Jimi Hendrix, Elvis Presley, John Lennon, and Bob Marley.

TRASH OR TREASURE

BY POSTFOSSIL

<http://postfossil.ch/collection>

A collective of 10 designers, postfossil predicts a dystopic future, where crude oil is so dear as to wear it on a glass-vile necklace.

FEATHERED HEADBANDS

PETER MUELLER

<http://www.petermuellerfashion.com/>

More images under "Lookbook"

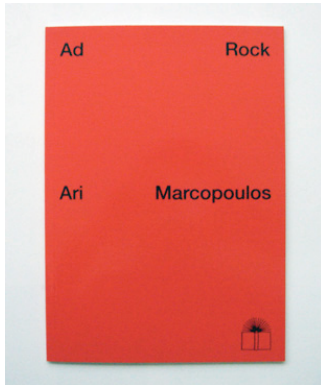

COPY

BY SARAH KUENG AND LOVIS CAPUTO

<http://www.kueng-caputo.ch/projects/>

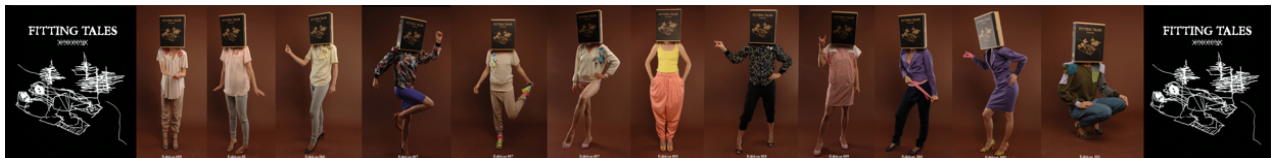

This picture book documents how the young Swiss product design team, Sarah Kueng & Lovis Caputo has copied objects from international fairs worldwide over the last few years. Each copy is juxtaposed with the original, mostly on a double page spread.

AD ROCK – ADAM HOROVITZ BY ARI MARCOPOULOS

<http://www.nieves.ch/catalogue/ari6.html>
<http://www.nieves.ch/catalogue/ari6inside.html>

The second book in Marcopoulos' portraits book series takes a look at the musician, guitarist, rapper, producer, and actor Adam Keefe Horovitz (South Orange, NJ, 1966) also known as Ad Rock, one of the members of the pioneering hip-hop group, the Beastie Boys, together with Michael "Mike D" Diamond, Adam "MCA" Yauch and dj Michael "Mix Master Mike" Schwartz.

FITTING TALES BY BITTEN STETTER

<http://www.bittenstetter.com/shop/index.html>

Stetter who is bored with the rhythm of fashion's winter and spring collections. The designer creates small editions of fashion tales, in a rhythm more similar to a magazine or a book. You can buy a one-year subscription. Bi-monthly a story- box with the latest creation will arrive in your mailbox.