Grrrr

Lobby

Grrrr (alias Ingo Giezendanner) seeks inspiration from urban space, obsessively documenting his location in detailed drawings, animations, and public murals. Encompassing the foyer of the gallery, Grrrr describes the artist's travels. This journey begins with the rail tracks in Switzerland, which are painted on the gallery doors. As one moves down the hallway, the visual landscape slowly changes. One passes the vistas of the former Yugoslavia, then of Turkey, and finally finishes with views of Georgia and eventually Azerbeidjan.
