

RYAN FOERSTER

Worklist

Ryan Foerster (b. 1983, New Market Canada) personally explores the complex terrain of biography, autobiography, fiction, and narrative. His works unabashedly capture the raw and lush trials of young adults. Like his predecessors Larry Clark, Walter Pfeiffer, and Ryan McGinley, the photographic work is a landscape of youth, these records map the artists' interactions with those close in his life. Haunting, the grainy colors and blurry shots belie the raucous events that precipitate these beautiful studies of light. The artist publishes them with a grace and ease in not-for-profit zines. The photographs exploration of the body and documentation of ad hoc meetings romantically recall underground 80's culture. They invite viewers to meditate upon the time when they were cusp of adulthood.
